THE WORLD AT LARGE.

Summary of the Daily News.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

ACTING SECRETARY RYAN has made a decision on section 5 of the act of March 3, 1889, and says that it was the evident intention of congress to provide a means whereby every homesteader might acquire title to 160 acres of land, notwithstanding a prior partial exercise of the homestead right.

OFFICIALS of the state department express the opinion that the war in Cuba is nearing an end and are prepared for most startling news to be received any day.

THE secretary of war has directed the general commanding the department of the Missouri to detail a troop of cavalry to assist Mr. Wisdom, United States Indian agent, in evicting 23 families of intruders in the Cherokee nation.

THE post office department is watching the effect of letter boxes on street cars in Des Moines, Ia., and if the experiment is successful it will be tried in other cities where the same conditions prevail.

THE Silver Dollar league of Washington has issued a circular asking investors to co-operate in the purchase of 40 tons of silver, which is to be offered to the mints for free coinage. Should the superintendent of the mint refuse to coin this silver the aid of the courts is to be invoked under a section of the act of February 28, 1878. This section, the league claims never has been repealed, and consequently silver may be forced upon the government for coinage.

A WASHINGTON telegram says Senator Gorman, of Maryland, will be put forward by the eastern democrats for the democratic nomination for president.

THE report having been published that the general land office would soon issue maps of Alaska, showing the latest surveys and explorations of the gold regions, that office has been flooded with letters requesting copies of the maps. As it will be impossible to prepare the maps for several months, the requests cannot be granted.

ACCORDING to the records of the treasury department the percentage of imports carried in American vessels for the first six months of this year was 15.35 and in foreign vessels 84.65, the British carrying 55.89 per cent. Of domestic exports only 8.19 was carried in American bottoms, 91.81 being carried in vessels of other nations, British vessels carrying 63.23 per cent. of the whole.

A WASHINGTON dispatch said that Ethan A. Hitchcock, of St. Louis, had accepted the post of minister to Russia, recently tendered to him by President McKinley.

THE civil service commission has issued a circular to the examining boards of 63 internal revenue districts, announcing that examinations for deputy collectors, clerks, storekeepers, gaugers and messengers will be held in each district on September 18.

COMMISSIONER POWDERLY has sent instructions to immigration officials at United States ports to make a careful inspection of arriving passengers, as several noted anarchists were believed to be on their way to this country from Europe.

THREE hundred ministers in the country have applied for one vacancy as chaplain in the army.

GENERAL NEWS.

THE Spanish prosecution at Havana has demanded that Evangelina Cisneros, niece of the Cuban president, be sent to the African penal colony of Ceuta for 20 years. The worst class of Spanish criminals are sent there to be sickened and die.

FABULOUS reports of gold finds in Trinity county, Cal., are attracting thousands of fortune hunters.

A "HORSE SWAPPING" convention took place at Winder, Ga., recently, for the purpose of permitting farmers and traders to get together and dispose of surplus stock and fill their various needs. It was such a success that the organization has been made permanent and will hold a session every year.

TEN young women of the best families of Sevierville, Tenn., whipped a young man named Story, drove him out of town and threatened to hang him if he returned. He made a practice of speaking disparagingly of young women.

AN average increase of $1 a ton has been made in the price of structural steel at the mills in Cleveland, O., within the past few days and it was expected that the price might go up $2 a ton more within the next 30 days.

A RECENT fire at Cleveland, Ok., destroyed half the business portion, Sutton's bank building being burned, besides six dry goods stores, several grocery stores and other places. The fire was said to be incendiary.

A NORWEGIAN railroad laborer at Omaha, Neb., has long been ailing from a complaint which was supposed to be eczema, but which is now declared to be leprosy.

SPARKS from an engine ignited a pile of shavings at a furniture factory in San Francisco, resulting in the total destruction of the factory and contents.

DAVID DELBICH and wife were found murdered in their home near Bellefontaine, O., and the house ransacked throughout.

MANY eastern "tenderfeet" who started for the Klondike region were reported as being stranded at Tacoma, Wash., and elsewhere on the coast.

OFFICERS went to arrest Harry Korr, a negro, charged with murder at Palmar station near Little Rock, Ark., when Korr and half a dozen other negroes opened fire and there was a pitched battle, which resulted in two negroes and one of the officers being killed and two other officers seriously wounded. A posse started after the other negroes in order to lynch them.

A DISPATCH to the New York Herald from Havana said that Capt. Gen. Weyler, the commander of the Spanish forces in Cuba, had sent his resignation to Madrid.

THE northbound passenger train of the M. K. & T. was derailed near Cadiz Mills, Tex., early on the 13th and W. H. Rollins, baggage man, was killed and three negro passengers slightly injured. The rails of the track had been misplaced by somebody.

HALD, Cooper, Loughhead, Kiser and Sanger have been matched for a bicycle race on the Buffalo, N. Y., athletic field, August 24, for a $1,000 purse. The race is to be in mile heats, best two out of three.

A JAIL from Russell Gulch broke into the jail at Central City, Col., at two a. m. on the 13th and fired through the bars of the cage at four prisoners, held on suspicion of being the murderers of Alex Giddard, a miner. The four prisoners escaped death by hiding behind the bedding in their cell and the mob, supposing they had killed them, left.

PETER MOSKOWAN, aged 63 years, was legally hanged at Baltimore, Md., on the 13th for the murder of his wife.

In the fight at Waterbury, Conn., between Dan Murphy, of that city, and Alf Hanlon, of England, the former knocked the latter out in the 13th round by a left-handed hook on the jaw. The match was for 15 rounds.

ALL the prisoners in the jail at Olney, Ill., recently made their escape by cutting the bars with files.

MILTON PARK, the chairman of the national organization committee of the populist party, has issued a lengthy address from Dallas, Tex., in which he urges all populists to reject fusion or alliance with democrats or republicans.

HAROLD MORLEY, the 15-year-old son of W. W. Morley, division superintendent of the Kansas City, Pittsburg & Gulf, with headquarters at Kansas City, was found hanged to a tree near his father's ranch, near Chamberino, N. M. The murder was supposed to have been committed by Mexican neighbors of the Morleys, with whom they have had trouble over their ranch boundaries.

A SWEEPING and far-reaching injunction was issued on the 12th in the coal miners' strike in the Pittsburgh, Pa., district which tended to make the situation a strained one. Judge Collier granted a preliminary injunction restraining the defendants from marching or encamping in proximity to the mines and houses of the miners for the purpose, by intimidation and opprobrious words, of preventing the miners of the plaintiff from working. It further restrained the defendants from inducing or compelling any miner to quit work.

THE 14-year-old son of Richard Bell, living south of St. Charles, Ia., was moving weeds when he struck a nest of rattlesnakes and was bitten three times. His father went to the little town to get a supply of whisky to counteract the effects of the poison, but was unable to do so, the county being strictly prohibition. The boy died.

FUSION with the democrats was repudiated by the Ohio populists in state convention at Columbus on the 11th. Jacob S. Coxey, of "commonweal" fame, was nominated for governor and the populist platforms of St. Louis and Omaha were endorsed.

BURGARS entered the post office at Republic, O., blew the safe open and secured nearly $100. Postmaster Melber was securely bound in his room before an entrance was effected to the office.

CHARLES M. CLIFFORD, a baker at Chicago, murdered his wife by cutting her throat with a razor and then committed suicide. Jealousy was supposed to have been the cause.

THE closing down of the coal mines at Breese and Trenton, Ill., has caused farmers in many places to stack their grain, owing to the shortage of coal, which has compelled them to abandon threshing.

TOMMY MARTEL wagered a hat that he could ride a mile down River hill, the highest mountain in Livingston county, N. Y., on his bicycle in a minute. He did the mile in 50 seconds. He lost control of his pedals, but clung to his handlebars and reached the foot of the hill badly scared.

E. E. BAKER, of Denison, Tex., has fled suit for divorce from his wife because she consumes a gallon of butter-milk a day and snores.

JOHN THOMAS, while drunk, fired into a crowd at Spokane, Wash., shooting three men, and will himself probably die from a shot fired by Chief of Police Warren while resisting arrest.

SOME negroes who had been confined in the jail at Chelsea, I. T., on their liberation made an attempt to blow it up with dynamite. One side of the place was damaged, but none of the inmates were seriously injured.

CAPT. MORTENSEN, of the bark Ansgar, on his arrival at Onega, Russia, stated that he passed, about two days' journey east of North Cape, a balloon which had collapsed from loss of gas. It was feared the balloon belonged to Andree, the arctic explorer.

THE president of the Universal Peace union has written a letter at Philadelphia offering the services of the union as arbitrator in the coal strike.

DETECTIVES recently found an illicit distillery in Chicago turning out 53 gallons of "moonshine" whisky a day. A BIN that held 1,000 tons of coal burst in the Edison Electric Illuminating Co.'s building at Patterson, N. J., and buried two men under it.

JAMES A. R. ELLIOTT, of Kansas City, Mo., defeated Sim Glover, the Rochester, N. Y., crack shot, at the Rochester driving park on the 14th and won the title of champion wing shot and captured the handsome trophy of the Kansas City Star that goes with the championship. The score was 32 to 84.

CONGRESSMAN ASHLEY B. WRIGHT fell dead at his home at North Adams, Mass., on the night of the 13th.

A FARMER near Greeley, Neb., named John D. Maw, attacked his married daughter with a hammer and inflicted fatal injuries. He then drove the rest of his family from the house and set fire to it and then fired the wheat stacks and barn. He was mentally unbalanced and was put in jail.

THE Sac and Fox Indians recently visited the Otoe Indians near Perry, Ok., and had a dance and feast on dog soup.

J. Z. GEORGE, United States senator for Mississippi, died in Mississippi City on the 14th. He had been near death's door since last winter.

HEAVY hailstorms around Pueblo, Col., on the 13th damaged the railroads and stopped the trains from running.

THE count of Turin and Prince Henri of Orleans fought a duel with swords at Paris on the 13th. Prince Henri received two serious wounds in the right shoulder and in the right side of the abdomen. The count of Turin was wounded in the right hand. The duel was the result of criticisms on the Italian army.

A NEW YORK telegram said leading bicycle manufacturers of England and the United States were forming a trust to control prices.

THE Cuban insurgents gained a victory in Matanzas province recently and not only defeated the Spanish troops with heavy loss, but caused Gen. Weyler, the commander-in-chief, to beat a retreat and killed Gen. Molina.

A MOUNTAIN gold strike has been made in the Moon Anchor mine near Colorado Springs, Col., the ore running in the neighborhood of $75,000 to the ton.

At the emancipation celebration given by colored citizens at Little Rock, Ark., on the 12th Hon. H. L. Remmel, the republican leader of the state, branded the movement for pensioning ex-slaves as the veriest nonsense and advised them not to be duped into spending money for such an illusion.

ALL negroes have been ordered to leave the parish of Vernon, La.

"KID" MCCOY knocked out Dan Bayliff, of Lima, O., in the third round at Dayton, O., on the 13th. Bayliff was no equal to McCoy as a scientific fighter.

LEWIS DEERWESTER, who was suspected of being implicated in the Detroit double murder at Bellefontaine, O., was found unconscious on his wife's grave with his throat cut. Slight hopes were entertained for his recovery.

THE men employed in repairing 35 of the public school buildings at Chicago, to the number of 2,500, struck on the 13th. The strikers wanted only union men employed.

FIRE on the 13th burned four buildings at Ironwood, Mich. Henry Lensol was suspected of starting the fire and a crowd gathered and attempted to throw him into the burning buildings, but the firemen turned the hose on them and they desisted and the prisoner was taken to jail. It was said that he made a full confession that he was hired by Charles Ross, who owned the buildings, to set them on fire. Ross has also been arrested.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY and his party paid a special visit on the 12th to the grave of John Brown, near Lake Placid, N. Y. McKinley is the first president to ever visit the last resting place of the great abolitionist and father of the republican party.

REPORTS of a terrific hailstorm were received from Alexander and other towns north of Eldorado, Ia., on the 13th. The corn crop was stripped and will make nothing. Oats were so badly pounded out of the shock that they were not worth thrashing. Many barns were wrecked and stacks torn down and blown away.

FIRE in St. Louis wrecked the two top floors of the seven-story building occupied by the Enterprise Brass Co., causing $53,000 loss.

THE elevator at Maquon, Ill., containing a large amount of grain, was totally destroyed by a fire attributed to tripe.

MIKE FARRAGHER and Joe Martin, of Youngstown, O., fought a 45-round draw near Cleveland the other night.

ABOUT 150 miners of the Saginaw (Mich.) Coal Co. struck on the 11th for a raise of 15 cents per ton.

THE London Times said on the 11th: It is estimated by persons in a position to form an opinion that at least 13 per cent. more wheat than is usually needed by Europe will be wanted this year. Owing to the short Russian, French and Austro-Hungary crops, the United States will be the only country able to meet this extra demand.

PHILIP HINES died recently at Delaware, O., at the age of 107. He enlisted in the union army at the age of 71 and, being on a furlough at the close of the war, was not discharged until a few years ago. He was the last veteran discharged.

A train started to leave Guaymas this morning, but was detained by the Mexican government. There was a cloud burst above the city which filled the streets and flooded the greater part of Nogales. Three bridges were washed away. Several houses in Arispe street were washed away and a number of Mexican families are homeless. The residence of Arilo Ramirez, the mayor, was destroyed.

The True Remedy.

W. M. Repine, editor Tiskilwa, Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home, as in it we have a certain and sure cure for coughs, colds, whooping cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Sold at F. J. Watron's drug store.
